MICROLOAN APPLICATION

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT COLLABORATIVE

PART 1. INTRODUCTION

The Community Investment Collaborative (CIC) is a microenterprise development organization with a mission to leverage community resources to provide capital and education to entrepreneurs who have difficulty accessing funding from traditional sources and who seek an educational support system that is relevant to their business needs. CIC accomplishes this by providing loans and advisory support to existing and aspiring entrepreneurs in the forms of business training, 1:1 mentoring, and peer gatherings.

PART 2. ELIGIBILITY

CIC makes loans to micro and small enterprises in the Thomas Jefferson Planning District (Charlottesville, Albemarle, Fluvanna, Nelson, Louisa, and Greene). Businesses are eligible for the Program if they meet the following guidelines:

Borrower Characteristics – please tick as it applies to you:

- Micro to small-sized private sector enterprises active in Charlottesville, Albemarle, Fluvanna, Nelson, Louisa, and Greene
- Businesses that have completed CIC's Entrepreneurship Workshop
- Businesses with and without previous operational history
- Businesses must be formally registered in Virginia (business license and other appropriate)
- Businesses must have a business bank account
- Businesses must have and/or project sufficient cash flow to meet obligations
- Businesses cannot access traditional sources of financing (i.e. commercial bank loans)
- Borrowers must not discriminate against any groups in their hiring and business activities

Ineligible Uses of Financing:

1. Loans for personal use
2. Activities identified as environmentally hazardous
3. Speculative investments in securities
4. Illegal activities

Part 3. CHECKLIST

Please complete and submit the following information along with your Microloan application.
We can't consider your application until we have all the information.
